This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

In the preparation of this Catalogue our aim has been to make it practical and useful, and to meet what seemed to us the special needs of the Law Department of the California State Library.

The peculiar character of some of the works has rendered entire uniformity impracticable, and made a strictly logical analysis impossible, while deceiving title pages have doubtless sometimes misled us. We therefore make no claim to perfect work, either in method or matter. We believe, however, it will subserve the purpose for which it was intended, and trust the legal profession will find it useful.

We have received valuable assistance in our labor from that excellent work, "The Lawyer's Reference Manual." It is a mine of information and a marvel of accuracy, and we gratefully acknowledge our obligations to its author, Charles C. Soule.

TALBOT H. WALLIS,
State Librarian.

NOTES.

1. Volume 1 of Dallas contains only Colonial and State Cases, and can hardly be catalogued as a Supreme Court Report. Mr. Otto has, however, labeled his first report as "91 United States," and has evidently considered 1 Dallas as the first of the series. Strictly speaking, there is no United States Report properly entitled Volume 1, though 2 Dallas is properly Volume 2.

Vols. 2, 3, and 4 Dallas contain, also, decisions of the Circuit Courts, and of the Pennsylvania Courts.

2. A volume entitled 17 Peters is sometimes cited, but all the cases contained in it are to be found in 1 Howard, though the statements of cases and syllabi differ. Hon. Henry Baldwin, in a volume entitled "A General View of the Origin and Nature of the Constitution and Government of the United States," and labeled "Baldwin's Constitutional Views," has published and explained his concurring opinions in four cases reported in 11 Peters.

3. Peters's Condensed Reports contain nearly all the decisions found in the second, third, and fourth volumes of Dallas, the nine volumes of Cranch, and the twelve volumes of Wheaton.

4. Curtis's Decisions contain all of the United States Reports from 2 Dallas to 17 Howard. Volume 22 is a digest of the series.

5. Miller's Decisions contain all the cases reported from 17 Howard to 1 Otto.

6. Morrison's Transcript was an unofficial publication of Supreme Court decisions begun in 1880. It was discontinued in 1882.

7. It will be observed that the period covered by Clifford's Reports laps over on that covered by Holmes, but the decisions are not duplicated. Clifford's Reports contain only the decisions of Judge Clifford, while Holmes's contains only the decisions of other judges.

8. Paine also contains two District Court cases.

9. Peters's and Washington's Reports contain the decisions of Judge Washington, and really form but one series. They are all edited by Mr. Peters.

10. This volume also contains one case decided in 1829.

11. Brockenbrough's Reports are labeled "Marshall's Decisions by Brockenbrough," and are often cited as Marshall's Decisions. The more common and better citation is "Brock.," as there are several reporters by the name of Marshall.

12. Taney's Decisions were reported by J. M. Campbell.

13. Chase's Decisions were reported by B. T. Johnson, and are labeled outside, "Chase's Decisions—Johnson's Reports." The proper citation is Chase. An Appendix to this volume contains the Constitution and several Acts of the "Confederate States of America."

14. Hughes, Bond, Flippin, and Bissell contain both Circuit and District Court cases.

15. Hempstead contains three classes of cases: those in the United States Superior Court for the Territory of Arkansas—1820-1836; those in the United States District Court for the District of Arkansas—1836-1849; and those in the United States Circuit Court for the District of Arkansas—1839-1855. It will be found catalogued under Circuit, District, and Arkansas Reports, though there is but one volume. When it was published Arkansas was in the Ninth Circuit, but owing to the change made in 1866-7, it is now found in the Eighth.

16. Deady contains cases decided while California and Oregon comprised the Tenth Circuit, and afterwards when both States were included in the Ninth. There is but one volume.

17. Deady, Sawyer, and Abbott all contain both Circuit and District Court cases.

18. From 1801 to 1863 the District of Columbia had established in its borders a Circuit Court, which, though practically only local, had powers equal to those of the other Federal Circuit Courts, and was known as such, and its reports are therefore catalogued here. In 1863, the Circuit Court was abolished, and a Supreme Court of the District established in its stead. Its powers correspond with those of the Supreme Courts of the States, and its reports will be found catalogued among the State Reports under the title District of Columbia.

19. Abbott, Bissell, Bond, Deady, Flippin, Hempstead, Hughes, McLean, Paine, Jr., and Sawyer, contain both Circuit and District Court cases, and are also catalogued under the head of Circuit Courts.

20. R. D. Benedict reported the first six volumes alone, but was assisted on the last four by Benjamin L. Benedict.

21. Davies was the first reporter of the decisions of Honorable Ashur Ware, and the volume was early cited as Davies Reports, but the later and better citation of the volume, formerly known as Davies, is 2 Ware.

NOTES.

1. The Supreme Court of Georgia had no existence prior to 1845. The two Charltons, Dudley, and the Georgia Decisions contain cases in the Superior Courts, which were the highest Courts in the State at the time the decisions were rendered.

2. This supplement contains the decisions of the March term of 1864, omitted in the confusion at the close of the civil war.

NOTES.

1. Clinton's Digest comes down to 1860. The three volumes of Wait are a continuation coming down to 1868. Volumes 4 and 5 of Wait are supplementary to the other three, and come down to 1875.

2. Key's Reports are sometimes cited as 40*, 41*, 42*, and 43* N. Y., and contain cases not reported in the regular series. The same cases are found in Abbott's Court of Appeals Decisions.

3. The first six volumes of Hun cover the same ground as Thompson & Cook's Reports, but the latter are "unofficial."

4. This volume is entitled, Volume 43, New York Superior Court Reports. There was evidently an intent to interpolate it in the series then in course of publication by Jones & Spencer. The latter, however, paid no attention to the volume, but numbered their eleventh volume 43 also. To prevent confusion the citation by the Reporter's name is desirable.

NOTES.

1. No reporters' names appear on the title pages of these volumes. Treadway and Mill were publishers only.

2. Chevis' Law and Chevis' Equity are each entitled Volume 1, though no others were published. They are bound together, with separate paging, and labeled Chevis' Law and Equity Reports.

3. Volume 13, Richardson's Law, and Volume 12, Richardson's Equity, are bound together, the cases commingling and the paging consecutive. The Equity series has, therefore, the appearance of one volume having been omitted.

4. The distinction between law and equity was abolished by an Act passed in 1870. The published volumes of decisions since November term of 1868, have been known as South Carolina Reports.

NOTES.

1. This digest is better in promise than in fulfillment. The first two volumes cover subjects from "Abandonment" to "Homestead." The third covers the rest of the alphabet. In the preface to the first volume we find a declaration that the third volume will contain a citation of Tennessee cases, on the plan of Desty's Federal Citations. The editor seems to have more plan than pluck. At any rate, the third volume is totally wanting in the promised citations, and has not even a table of cases.

2. Volumes 1 and 2 of Haywood are North Carolina Reports.

Digitized by Google

3. Several volumes bearing Mr. Heiskell's name were reported by other persons, though under his supervision. Vols. 5 and 11, by W. B. Reese, Jr.; Vols. 6 and 10, by T. H. Malone; Vols. 7 and 12, by R. McP. Smith; and Vol. 9, by J. C. Malone.

4. Baxter and Heiskell cover, in part, the same period, but do not report the same cases.

LAW TERMS.

The Law Terms were originally timed by the Church festivals from which they take their names.

By Act 1, William IV, it was provided that in A. D. 1831, and afterwards, the terms shall commence and end as follows:

Hilary Term.	January 11 to January 31.
Paschal or Easter Term.	April 15 to May 8.
Trinity Term.	May 22 to June 12.
Michaelmas Term.	November 2 to November 25.

By the Judicature Act of 1873, the terms above mentioned have been abolished as to the administration of justice.

"The division of the legal year into terms shall be abolished, so far as relates to the administration of justice; and there shall no longer be terms applicable to any sitting or business of the High Court of Justice, or of the Court of Appeal, or of any Commissioners to whom any jurisdiction may be assigned under this Act; but in all other cases in which, under the law now existing, the terms into which the legal year is divided, are used as a measure for determining the time at or within which any act is required to be done, the same may continue to be referred to for the same or the like purpose, unless and until provision is otherwise made by any lawful authority."—[Judicature Acts, 1873–75, p. 28.

THE LAW REPORTS.

The publication of the Law Reports was commenced in 1866, under the direction of an "Incorporated Council of Law Reporting." They were first bound, as indicated in the first table of the Law Reports, under eleven different titles; but in 1875 the arrangement of the Reports was changed.

The cases included under the three titles—"English and Irish Appeal Cases," "Scotch and Divorce Appeal Cases," and "Privy Council Appeals"—were thereafter published under the title, "Appeal Cases." The cases included under the titles, "Chancery Appeal Cases" and "Equity Cases," were published under the title, "Chancery Division." "Crown Cases Reserved" was merged in "Queen's Bench Division," and the "Admiralty and Ecclesiastical Reports" was merged in the "Probate Division." This left the Law Reports in six divisions; and they continued to be published so until 1880, when another change was made. Both the "Common Pleas Division" and the "Exchequer Division," after the publication of Volume 5, in 1880, were merged in the "Queen's Bench Division," so that now there are but four publications: "Chancery Division," "Queen's Bench Division," "Probate Division," and "Appeal Cases."

The Law Reports from November, 1865, to November, 1875.

CHANCERY.

In addition to the Reports named in the table, Moore, Dyer, Godbolt, Gouldsborough, Popham, Part 2 of Ventris, Pollexfen, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10, Modern, Salkeld, Fortescue, Comyns, Strange, Fitzgibbon, Willes, Wilson, and W. Blackstone contain some cases in Chancery, but the number is too small to warrant the classification of these Reports under the head of Chancery.

COMMON PLEAS.

Most of the early King's Bench Reports contain some Common Pleas cases. Many of the Common Pleas Reports of the present century contain cases in the Exchequer Chamber. Registration cases are also bound with them, the Common Pleas being an appellate Court from the decisions of the revising barristers relating to registration of voters.

This peculiar and antiquated volume, so novel in arrangement, once belonged to General W. R. Davis, of North Carolina, and who was the first Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to France, under General Washington. It was purchased at the sale of the library of said General Davis, by Z. W. Barrow, who gave it to W. Beckwith, Esq., of Plymouth, N. C.; and at the administrator's sale of said Beckwith, at Plymouth, N. C., it was bought by Wm. H. Rhodes, in the month of February, 1850. It is printed in Norman French, with the English translation, and marginal notes, both printed and written.
